aided to take out at once, a round amount of Clearing House loan certificates, appor-tioning the block among themselves according to their capital and surplus.

They determined to do this irrespective of their accommodations to borrowers generally.

The bulk of the money thus made available as thrown upon the call loan market, with result of quickly depressing the rate for teers' balances from 3-16 of 1 % cent. and teest to 6 % cent.

The amount of loan certificates which the Wall street read with a good deal of satisfaction to-day of the closing of many silver mines, including some that produce the richest ore. The decline in the price of silver has also driven a number of the largest smelters out of the ore market. It looks as if there would be a material decrease in the production of silver in the near future, a circumstance that will logically result in a recovery in the price of the metal. In view of the extension at that eentre that cannot but cause on at that centre that cannot but cause for market of the day. is nominal, and so is the market for commercial paper.

The sterling exchange market was unfavorably affected by the early stringency in money, and a further decline in rates occurred. The quotations made were about the lowest of the year, and business was very moderate at the concessions. The improvement in the monetary situation during the afternoon caused a slight rally in the late dealings. Continental exchange was weaker. During the reunion at Gettysburg on July 1. and 3, the survivors of the Excelsior Brigade of New York will dedicate their monument, Orchard. The monument is in the shape of a Orchard. The monument is in the shape of a Doric temple, pentagonal in form, and having on each of its sides a bronze tablet which gives the record of the killed, wounded, and missing in the battle of each of the five regiments of the brigade. The whole is surmounted with a bronze eagle with outstretched wings. Gen. Daniel E. Sickles, the organizer of the brigade and its first commander, will preside. W. Eastman, late chapiain of the Third Excelsior, will offer the prayer, and Col. John N. Coyne of the First Excelsior will deliver the oration at the dedicatory ceremonics. Finnneint.

scription exclusively to Preferred and Common Stockholders of the National Cordage Company, who deposit their shares, at the UNITED STATES TRUST COMPANY, at the price of 85 per cent, and interest; payments therefor to be made 25 per cent, at the time of subscription, and the balance at the rate of 25 per cent, per month thereafter.

After that date bonds not taken by the Stockholders will be offered to the public at a price to be fixed, but not less than 85 per cent, and interest.

OF THIS ISSUE OF BONDS $3,000,000

HAS ALREADY BEEN UNDERWRIT.

TEN AT 85 PER CENT, FOR A 5 PER CENT, CASH COMMISSION.

Stockholders may participate in the underwriting of the remaining $2,000,000 of these Bonds upon the same terms by applying to any member of the Reorganization Committee, provided that no one will be permitted to underwrite a less amount than $5,000

The Committee reserves the right to terminate this privilege at any time, and to make allotments for less than the amount underwritten.

Any further information in connection with the reorganization which may be desired by the Stockholde will be furnished on application at the offices of the undersigned, or at the office of the UNITED STATES TRUST COMPANY.

The undersigned Committee begs to give notice that as various payments on mills purchased years ago, on which the bulk of the payment has already been made. are becoming due, and in some instances are alread;

are becoming due, and in some instances are already overdue, it is most important to perfect the reorganization at an early date, so that the interests of all concerned can be properly protected.

Certificates of stock, both Common and Preferred, may be deposited with the UNITED STATES TRUST COMPANY at once and receipts will be given for the same, but the first installment for new preferred stock need not be paid until July 10. These receipts will be placed upon the unlisted department of the Stock Exchange as soon as possible.
